

Fight for your rights to enjoy cigars!

- Governmental bans limit the rights of personal freedom for responsible citizens, where it is not necessary.
- Cigars are an organic natural product, which is produced without any (artificial) additives and contains only tobacco leaves.
- Cigars are enjoyed only by grown-ups for indulgence and pleasure and not for out of habit and addiction reasons.
- Enjoying a cigar is a major key for personal well-being and gives time for relaxation and reflections as well as community and social life.
- Regarding this reasons cigars should not be treated like cigarettes.
- Thousands of jobs in the agriculture, industry and sales business depends on the cigar industry - most of them in developing countries, where the cultivation and production of cigars is the principal source of income.
- Private owners of tobacco shops, lounges or similar facilities in the hotel and restaurant business should have the possibility to define their own rules for enjoying a cigar.
- The culture of cigars which has existed for several hundreds of years should be declared as a world cultural heritage.
